

Through Carey Park with open views of the river Weaver, over the bridge into Anderton Nature Park then walk up to the iconic Anderton Lift. Stop here for a good look and possibly pit stop in the cafe. Follow the canal to the lattice bridge and turn down to Winnington Bridge Of Civil War fame – 19 August 1659.
